Program Review Council

The Program Review Council is an advisory group that assists in carrying out the purposes of academic program review as described in UCF Policy 4-407 (Academic Program Review). Members are appointed by the provost or their designee, the Senior Vice Provost for Academic Affairs. The council is chaired by the Senior Vice Provost for Academic Affairs. At minimum, other council members include the Associate Vice Provost of Undergraduate Studies, the Dean of the College of Graduate Studies, the Vice President for Research and Scholarship, the Vice Provost for Faculty Excellence, and the Assistant Vice President for Academic Program Quality, or their respective designees. Additional members may be added at the discretion of the provost or designee.
